My Last Request
Please don’t say how good I was,
But that I did my best.
Just say I tried to do what’s right,
To give the most I could not do less.
Please don’t give me wings or halos,
that’s for God to do,
I want no more than I deserve,
no extras, just my due.
Please don’t be angry, or talk in harsh tones,
Don’t be concerned about me now.
I’m well with God; I’ve made it home.
Don’t talk about what could have been,
It’s over and it’s done.
Just see to all my family’s needs,
The battle has been won.
When you draw a picture of me,
Don’t draw me as a saint,
I’ve done some good; I’ve done some wrong,
So, use all your paint
Not just the bright and light tones, use some gray and dark.
In fact, don’t put me down on canvas,
paint me in your heart.
Don’t just remember all the good times,
but remember some bad, as well
For life’s full of many things,
Some happy and some sad.
But, if you must do something
Then I have One Last Request ......
Forgive me for the wrongs I’ve done,
And with the love that’s left,
Thank GOD for my soul’s resting,
Thank GOD for all who loved me.
Praise God who loved me best.

Our Dearest Tre’
God looked around his garden
And found an empty space,
Then looked down upon the earth and saw your handsome face
God’s garden must be beautiful.
He only has the best.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
He knew you were saved.
And ready to stand the test
We all loved you but he loved you best.
It broke our heart to lose you,
But you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you
The time he called you home.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT
To all of our many friends, we say "Thank You." Your prayers, words of consolation, flowers and the many acts, both seen and unseen, have sustained us throughout this difficult time. May God continue to shower His love upon each of you, and may He make us ever worthy of your love, kindness and trust.

I’m Free
Don’t grieve for me, for I am free
I followed the path God laid for me.
Perhaps my time has seemed all too brief.
Don’t lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and know that I’m with God.
God wanted me now; He set me free.
Charles Edward Jones, III (Tre’) was born on February 18, 1992, in Demopolis, AL to Charles and Alessandra Jones.

Tre’ was baptized at St. Leo’s Catholic Church, where he also served as an altar boy and practiced Catholicism for over half of his life. At the age of fourteen Tre’ converted to the Baptist faith and was baptized a member of the Saint Paul Missionary Baptist Church, under the leadership of Reverend Charlie Moore, where he served on the Usher board and was a member of the Men’s Sunday School Class. After he moved to Tuscaloosa to attend school, at the University of Alabama, Tre’ attended Cornerstone Baptist Church. He rarely attended church alone, often encouraging his friends to join him in worshipping Christ.

He attended Carrie’s daycare, the Demopolis City School system, and graduated from Demopolis High School in 2010, with an advanced honors’ diploma. While in high school, Tre’ was a committed and devoted athlete in baseball, basketball, and football. He was a proud member of the 2009 5A State Championship football team. He was also a member of the DHS Student Council, Skills USA, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Matengo County Youth Lead, the Mayor’s Youth Advisory Council, and was the recipient of the first annual Marengo County Sports Hall of Fame Scholarship.

Tre’ worked to be a positive influence, lead many crusades and influenced many people both young and old in his brief life. Tre’ was in his second year at the University of Alabama, initially majoring in business management, recently changing his major to civil engineering to pursue his dream of returning home to expand Jones Construction Company of Demopolis. While at the University of Alabama, Tre’ became a proud member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity and Delta Sigma Pi Business Fraternity.
