To Those Whom I Love and Those Who Love Me
I am gone, release me, let me go,
I have so many things to see and do.
You must not tie yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that I have had so many years.
I gave to you my love. You can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown.
But now it’s time I traveled on alone.
So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It’s only for a time that we must part,
so bless the memories in your heart.
I will never be far away, for life goes on,
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you cannot see or touch me, I will be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you will hear.
All of my love around you soft and clear
Then, when you must come this way alone,
I’ll greet you with a smile and say, “Welcome Home!”

The Broken Chain
Little did we know that morning, that God was going to call your name, in life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone, for part of us went with you, the day God took you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

-Dad

We’ll always remember that special smile,
that caring heart,
that warm embrace,
you always gave us.
You being there for Mom and us through good and bad times,
no matter what.
We’ll always remember you Dad because they’ll never be another one to replace you in our hearts,
and the love we will always have for you.
